Firefighter 1 Recruit School

This demanding, ten-week program provides comprehensive training in all aspects of basic firefighting skill.

The hands-on course is designed to prepare and train recruits to meet hiring standards established by fire departments as entry-level firefighters. Knowledge obtained from classroom instruction is transferred to fire-ground application during live fire training. Recruits will participate in about 100 hours of live fire training.

This course meets all requirements for Firefighter I certification through the International Fire Service Accreditation Congress (IFSAC) process. Recruits must pass the IFSAC Firefighter I written and practical examinations to receive a certificate of graduation.

2005 FIREFIGHTER RECRUIT SCHOOL SCHEDULE

Class	Orientation	Graduation

ENROLLMENT/FEES

Recruit School Tuition

Fire Department Sponsored	$2800.00
Washington State resident	$2800.00
Non-resident	$3220.00

Food $865.00

The food service program strives to provide recruits with three balanced meals per day. Even though students are not required to purchase meals, the Fire Training Academy recommends students utilize the food service because of time constraints. Students who prepare their own food lose valuable study and rest time. If the request is made in advance, special dietary needs can be met.

Housing $520.00

Students are housed two or three students to each room. Students are not required to stay on campus, however, it is recommended.

Personal Protective Clothing $2000.00

Students who choose this option are permitted to keep this clothing.

Students may provide their own personal protective equipment. However, it must meet NFPA and State safety standards.

Fire Departments may be eligible for financial reimbursement from the Basic Firefighter program through the Office of the State Fire Marshal.

Recruit School Class Selection

In order to be considered for Recruit School, all applicants must submit a completed registration form located at www.wsp.wa.gov/fire/register.doc

If fire department sponsored, the billing information must be completed and signed by an authoritative designee.

Class capacity is 30. Selection into the class is based in the following priority:

- 1st. Individuals working for or being hired by a fire department
- 2nd. Volunteer or resident firefighter
- 3rd. Washington Stateself-sponsored individuals
- 4th. Non-resident self-sponsored individuals

Fire Department Sponsored

Individuals who have an affiliation with a fire department either as a career, volunteer or resident fire fighter and fire department agrees to sponsor them.

Self-Sponsored Washington State Resident

Individuals not sponsored by a fire department are selected into the recruit class based on when the registration application is received, and if accepted into the program, the necessary documentation is on file.

Self-Sponsored Non-Resident

Individuals that do not reside within the State of Washington, and are not sponsored by a fire department, are selected into the recruit class based on availability.
